Opening Address

Welcome to the 2023 Asian Conference on Crisisonomy.

Good Morning, Global Friends!!!

On the occasion of the 2023 Asian Conference on Crisisonomy, on behalf of my team, I would like to extend a warm welcome to all the scholars who have come from afar!

Nowadays, due to the global warming and climate change, we have experienced lots of natural disasters, such as typhoon, torrential rain, draughts, heat wave, landslide, spread of epidemic disease, etc. And also, with the rapid economic growth and development, our urban society has met various kinds of man-made disasters, like building and bridge collapse, chemical pollution, and so on. Recently, a lot of critical infrastructure can be threatened by new terrorism.

For accomplishing the safety in our region, scholars and experts in the field of crisis and emergency management, have to devote themselves to collaborate on crisis and emergency management.

In this time, we emphasize the topic of 'Climate Crisis and Sustainability:

Vulnerability, Resilience and Adaptation’ We hope that this symposium will contribute to build the cooperative bridge among nations.

We would like to give our thanks to all participants. Maybe, without their participation and efforts, we cannot hold this symposium. This symposium was made possible by global friends’ enthusiastic willingness to participate in our symposium from Korea, China, Japan, U.S.A., Nepal, Thailand.

Thank you very much for your interest, love, and attendance.

We look forward to seeing you in good health.
