

Congratulatory Remarks

Dear Colleagues and Academic Friends in the all Fields,

I am honored to participate with you all at this conference. This conference main topic is quite a timely and important issues on Climate Crisis and Sustainability: Vulnerability, Resilience, and Adaptation. The conference program has already shaped up to be excellent, and the networking opportunities will be indeed outstanding.

I add my best wishes for a successful and fruitful conference and my thanks to all organizing committee for their great work to preparation.

I am looking forward to an excellent meeting with great scientists from different countries around the Asian regions and sharing new and exciting results in Disaster risk management, which will be held in Jeju, from July20-21, 2023

The backdrop of the beautiful and historic city of Jeju Island will add to the pleasure of the meeting and provide wonderful lasting memories beyond the science.

Yours Sincerely

Co-President, Asian Association for Crisisonomy

Dr. Keiko Kitagawa
